

NEW VERGY

Mon., Oct. 15, 1984, Denver, Colo. Rocky Mountain News—47

A NEW EXCITEMENT

The First Colorado Playwrights Festival

Featuring the world premiere productions of 3 new plays by 3 Colorado Playwrights: Willow Wind by Manuel Gomez, P. J. by Mark McQuown and Mother's Nature by Priscilla Waggoner.

A collaboration of playwrights, producers & drama critics in an adventure that will expose you to drama, intrigue, glamour, excitement and speculation featuring original plays by Colorado playwrights. Symposiums, seminars, opening nights and brunch with the cast.

September 27-October 27

WILLOW WINDS

Thursdays, Fridays, Saturdays
Sept. 27-29 Oct. 18 & 26

P.J.

Thursdays, Fridays, Saturdays
Oct. 4-6, 19 & 27

MOTHER'S NATURE

Thursdays, Fridays, Saturdays
Oct. 11-13, 20 & 25

All performances at 8 p.m.

Tickets: $8 each

Brunch: $5 per person

CELEBRATION BRUNCH

Join theatre critics, Alan Stern, Denver Post; Jackie Campbell, Rocky Mountain News, & Juliet Whitman, Westword, in a brunch with the playwrights, directors & cast.

Sunday, Oct. 14
11 a.m.

Symposiums after each performance.

Reservations: 794-ARTS

Sponsored By:

OSPREY

Media Sponsor:

Rocky Mountain News

All events Held At
TOWN HALL
ARTS CENTER
2450 West Main Street
Littleton, Colorado
Phone 794-ARTS

Denver Public Theatre

Performer's Guild

Town Hall Arts Center